What do you think of a mother who friends—for you and me and for the parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McFadwhat do you think of a mother who always insists on reading the letters of her 18 year old daughter? This question was asked in a recent issue of a Kansas City paper. Doubtless there will be as many different opinions as there are people who read it. I can best express my opinion thusly: That if more mothers would read the letters of their 18 year old daughters there would be a few less daughters. The parents of you and me and for the wide world besides. Is it too much that we deny ourselves? Is it too much that we give until it hurts? Is any sacrifice too great? I fear we value too cheaply the privilege of giving. Too often we feel that it is a demand made on us rather than a glorious privilege granted to us. I letters of their 18 year old daughters tell you folks this war and all that it means is coming closer to you and to you, and sent you a card five days "encounter" with a posse.

Paris Island, S. C., August 24.—Captain Edwin Denby of the Marine Corps, was leaving Paris Island, S. C., the great eastern training camp for Devil Dog recruits. He was talking things over with his successor, Lieutenant Arthur Brenner Jacques. The practice of law was mentioned.

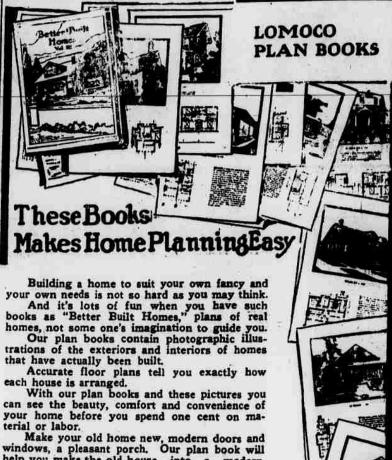

"That once was my profession," said Captain Denby, "I was a Congressman from Michigan."

"And I," said Lieutenant Jacques, "was a page in the House of Representatives."

Just then, the door opened, and in walked Private Ward B. Arbury, of the so5th Company, U. S. Marines.

"This completes the friangle," said the Captain. "Private Arbury formerly was my secretary in Congress."

Proving thereby, that it's a small, small world, especially when the Marines are concerned.
